OCA, OCP, & NABCJ (Oklahoma Chapter) Meet to Discuss 3-Day Training Conference Vision

Board members of the Oklahoma Correctional Association, the Oklahoma Corrections Professionals, and the Oklahoma Chapter of the National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice met on March 30th to explore a vision that formally began in 2009. The vision was to discuss the possibility of a combined three-day training conference for criminal justice professionals. The Boards discussed each organizations historical traditions and how they could be accommodated during a combined conference.

A site-selection committee was formed, consisting of OCA President-Elect Penny Brooksher, OCP Secretary Margaret Johnson, and NABCJ representative Karen White.

If you are interested in serving on the planning committee, please contact President –Elect Penny Brooksher.
